Greetings, Sir Knights:

This year, REGC Tucker is asking each of his officers to write an article for the "AR Supplement". This month's article is from ESK Ronnie Frizzell, Grand Senior Warden.

"You looking at me?"

Not too long ago I saw a great post on the Grand Lodge of Mississippi's Facebook page. It said "Take a good look at yourself, you're somebody's impression of Masonry".

When I first read this I was a little taken aback. Then, the more I thought about it, I became a little concerned. To think that someone out there may actually look at me and think, that is what a Mason should be, scared the living daylights out of me. Replace Masonry with Christian Knight and it really gets scary.

This simple statement really got me to thinking about how we are perceived; not only as Masons but especially as Knights Templar.

We never know how our words or actions will be perceived by someone. While all Masons are expected to act with integrity and honor, we as Christian Knights are called to a higher plane of conduct.

As Sir Knights, I hope we will all be mindful of how we present ourselves, especially to non-Templars. It took a simple sentence on a Facebook page to drive this point home to me. I hope you will give it some thought and let it impact you too.

In His Service
William R. "Ronnie" Frizzell
Grand Senior Warden
